| Salvador: Secretly sees Dorotea | Her father is angry with him. Dorotea is forbidden from going out at all. | Salvador is in love with her. Dorotea is pretty. | Salvador thinks they won’t get caught. He doesn’t think about losing his mother’s trust or ruining his or Dorotea’s reputations. He is thinking with his heart, not his head. | Dorotea loves Salvador. She gave him a knife with the inscription, “I die for love”. Love is a powerful emotion. | Opinion: I agree/disagree... I agree that Salvador should have continued dating Dorotea. She loves him and her father is being overprotective. Evidence: she says she will become a nun if she can’t marry Salvador. | Judgment: Yes, it’s fair/No, it’s not fair... Yes, it is fair of Salvador to continue seeing Dorotea. Evidence: she says she will become a nun if she can’t marry Salvador. |
