

Van Gogh	Both	Gauguin
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Liked brighter colors</li> <li>• Painted exactly what he saw</li> <li>• Loaded the brush with lots of paint and put it on in dots and dashes</li> <li>• Liked different colors, especially yellow</li> <li>• Was a quick painter</li> <li>• Simple man with simple tastes</li> <li>• Messy and careless</li> <li>• Talkative</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Encouraged and appreciated each other's art work</li> <li>• Used the same tools when painting- charcoal, paints, canvases</li> <li>• Liked to talk about painting and the best ways to paint</li> <li>• Lived at the Yellow House</li> <li>• Painted some the same subjects</li> <li>• Argued when didn't agree</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Painted things from imagination</li> <li>• Blended paints on palette making new colors, paint went on smoothly</li> <li>• Liked different colors than Van Gogh, especially red</li> <li>• Took a long time to paint</li> <li>• Slow painter, waited and dreamed about painting before started</li> <li>• Neat and organized</li> <li>• Quiet, a thinker</li> </ul>