

From William Maxwell's memoir entitled Love a memory of a remarkable teacher...

Comprehension

Explain what the narrator means (what is implied) by "She didn't belong to us anymore. She belonged to her illness"? Use at least three details from the story to support your answer. (LC03)

Analysis

Explain what qualities make Miss Lucy Brown so loved by her students? Use at least three details from the story to support your answer. (LA07)

Distinguish the differences in the students' interactions with Miss Lucy Brown at school compared to when the students visit her at home. Use at least three details from the story to support your answer. (LA06)

Distinguish the differences in Miss Lucy Brown's interactions with her students at school compared to when the students visit her at home. Use at least three details to support your answer. (LA06)

Thinking Critically

(LT09) Is the students' decision to visit Miss Lucy Brown at her home a good or bad idea? Provide three details from the story to support your answer.