and Washington State ASL Teacher Association (WA-ASLTA)

Fall 2009

Professional Development Training / High School Representative Meeting and WA-ASLTA General Meeting

Hi ASL Teachers:

This is a reminder. If you haven't, please RSVP me right away.

** College/University ASL Instructors are welcome!

Saturday, October 10, 2009 at SCCC, BE 1110 Room

8:30	Sign in, refreshments, networking
9:00	WA-ASLTA General Meeting: new officers, new changes; and ASL Consortium Online Library announcement
11:00	Lunch on your own
12:00	“ASL Inflectional Verbs: A Closer Look and Mastering Them”
3:00	SCCC Consortium High School Representatives Meeting
3:30	Evaluations, clock hours, brochures, certificates

Presenter *Lance Forshay

Lance is a native user of ASL, and the fourth of five Deaf generations. He has taught 20 years of ASL teachings. He is presently an ASL and Deaf Studies Lecturer and Program Coordinator at the University of Washington.

Upon completing the workshop, the participant will understand and define ASL inflectional verb types; will have the ability to produce each in ASL grammar with correct NMS and hand movements simultaneously and appropriately; and will identify which ASL verbs are inflectional and which types for each. The participant will learn the strategies of teaching ASL inflectional verbs and the variety of classroom activities that will reinforce ASL students' ASL grammar skills.

Reminder: Every high school articulated with Seattle Central Community College send a representative faculty person to the meeting. All are welcome.

Registration / Fee Information / Parking Pass

Please RSVP with Barbara Hayes, bhayes@sccd.ctc.edu.
