

Student Guidelines

Code of Conduct for on-line communication:

Adhere to the student handbook standards of behavior

Be civil

- No personal attacks
- No Flaming and Slamming*
- Don't write anything you wouldn't want your parents to see

Be Safe

- Do not reveal personal information such as home address and telephone number.
- Do not give anyone else your Student number or password.
- Do not use another person's login

Share knowledge

- Identify your subject matter
- Stay on topic
- Use proper grammar and spelling
- Meet assignment deadlines

I understand and will abide by the above code of conduct. I further understand that any violation of the above code or the regulations in the Student Handbook may result in the revoking of access privileges.

Student Signature

Date

Print Student Name

* "Flaming" is insulting another user's post, opinions, subject, grammar, or pretty much anything else, in an attempt to pick an online fight. "Slamming" is making offensive, condescending, or insulting comments about a user, product, or company in order to pick an online fight. Flaming and Slamming messages are not welcome.