Character Inferences
Graphic Organizer

An inference is a conclusion the reader makes based on the evidence in the text. If you have filled out a graphic organizer listing facts about the characterization of an individual in the story, you are ready to make an inference about that character.

Character's Name	Facts About the Character	What I Infer from the Facts
Example: Hercules	Kills lion Kills Hydra Captures Erymanthian Boar	Hercules is brave.