

Forms of Writing Process Grid

Writing Form	Purpose	Structure	Elements	Supporting Vocabulary
Narrative	To tell a story or entertain	Beginning Middle End <table><tr><td>B</td><td>M</td><td>E</td></tr></table> Mt. Plot	B	M	E	Character Setting Significant Event/Plot Emotion Details Description Sensory Details Dialogue	Temporal Words: At first After a while Before During Earlier Later Finally Suddenly Immediately
B	M	E
Informative/ Explanatory	To give information (who, what, where, when) about a topic or explain a process (how, why)	Introduction Body Conclusion <table><tr><td>I</td></tr><tr><td>B</td></tr><tr><td>C</td></tr></table>	I	B	C	Topic Information Facts or Sequence Details Text features (headings, graphics, diagrams)	Sequence Words: First Next Then Last Another In addition Also
I
B
C
Opinion	To state an opinion or express how you feel about a topic	Introduction Body Conclusion <table><tr><td>I</td></tr><tr><td>B</td></tr><tr><td>C</td></tr></table>	I	B	C	Topic Opinion Facts Reasons	Linking Words: Also And Another As a result Because For example However Similarly
I
B
C

Forms of Writing Process Grid

Form of Writing	Purpose	Structure	Words to use
NARRATIVE	to tell a story		<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• tomorrow</li><li>• before</li><li>• after</li><li>• suddenly</li><li>• all of a sudden</li><li>• finally</li><li>• in a while</li><li>• at night</li></ul>
INFORMATIONAL	To give information, or explain why, how or what	